Nick's present and past case work concerning consumer fraud includes digital privacy litigation against Facebook, LinkedIn and Sony, among others. He acts on behalf of children and their parents in data breach litigation against Disney, Viacom and other online game and app producers alleging violations of unlawful export, exploitation, and monetization of children's personal information from mobile games without parental consent. Nick is also working on consumer litigation against Volkswagen and British Airways as well as previously having litigated against the nation's largest banks for their unfair and deceptive practices to maximize the occurrence of overdraft fees, and against oil companies for the recovery of gas royalty underpayment claims in which plaintiffs recovered more than $100 million in cash and future benefits. His present and past case work concerning securities and financial fraud includes litigation against Facebook, AIG, Bank of New York Mellon, and Bank of America. He is actively involved in the Wells Fargo Shareholder Derivative Litigation in which Lieff Cabraser is Court-appointed Co-Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel.

Nick has worked on personal injury and mass tort cases (representing nearly two-thousand hemophiliacs from 24 countries who contracted HIV and/or HCV from contaminated blood products in litigation against major American pharmaceutical companies that settled in 2009); employment litigation (representing Wal-Mart workers in New York and Washington state who alleged they were deprived of meal and rest breaks and forced to work off-the-clock at Wal-Mart stores); and environmental litigation (resolving the claims of more than 500 individuals in Eastern Kentucky arising from an October 2000 coal sludge disaster).

On January 1, 2017, Nick was appointed to the Advisory Council of The Center for Democracy & Technology, and is the current Chair of the Consumer Privacy/Data Breach Litigation Group of the American Association for Justice.

On a pro bono basis, as part of Trial Lawyers Care (a project of the American Association for Justice), Nick represented several individuals, including an injured firefighter, in appeal hearings before the September 11th Victim Compensation Fund.
